

Announcing: Caldera 2019 Community Residency

December 7 – 21, 2019

WHAT: A creative residency for Caldera camp staff, teaching artists, and alumni of our Artists in Residence (AiR) program. Spend up to two weeks at the Arts Center working on personal projects among other members of the Caldera community.

WHEN: December 7 – 21, 2019.

WHERE: Caldera Arts Center!

Details

- Revisit the community and warmth that is Caldera while enjoying time and space to work on personal projects and enjoy the outdoors. A project could be any art/craft/creative project, research or study, lesson or curriculum planning, etc. Explore something new or delve deeper into work you know and love!
- Residents must arrive on Saturday, Dec. 7 between noon and 5 p.m. and stay a minimum of one week (departing Dec 14) or maximum of two weeks (departing Dec 21 by 11 a.m.).
- Caldera will provide a welcome dinner for all residents on Dec. 7 at 6 p.m.
- Residents will provide their own meals, materials, and transportation.
- This residency is open to all past and current Camp Caldera staff, teaching artists, and artists in residence. The residency is also open to all current year-round Caldera staff. Collaborations of two or more people from these groups are encouraged!
- This is a child-friendly opportunity. Residents with children may attend with their child/children and a caretaker. Families will be assigned an a-frame or cabin.

Accommodations/Studios

- A-frame or Cabin: Includes 2 - 4 beds, full bathroom, desk or table and mini-kitchen (2 burner stove, toaster oven, microwave, coffee pot, pots/pans/dishes). These spaces will be reserved for residents with children and collaborations of two or more people.
- Rooms in Tamarack Hall: Those staying in Tamarack Hall will have two private rooms that can be used in any way you want. Past residents have used one for living/sleeping and one as a studio. Each room includes 1 queen bed, writing desk, and chest of drawers. Bathrooms, kitchen, and living space are shared. Please understand that complete quiet cannot be guaranteed as there will be up to 11 people sharing Tamarack Hall. Quiet hours will be observed between 10pm and 8am.
- Studio Space: All studios (Campbell Studio, Photo Studio and the Grand Room) will be shared among up to three residents/collaborations.
- The Hearth Library and Kitchen will be shared among all residents.

Application/Nomination

- The brief online application will open August 15 and remain open until October 1 or until all spots are filled. Applicants will be notified of their status by October 15. Application questions are listed on the next page of this document for reference.
- If you attended a Community Residency in the past, you will be placed on a waitlist initially so that others who have not attended have an opportunity.
- Caldera Elders (Caton, Majik, Taz and Sister JRae) will each nominate 2 people to attend the residency. Nominees will be able to attend the residency for free.
- Caldera prioritizes BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) applicants for all of our residencies.

Fee: sliding scale $50 - $200

- Your fee covers cleaning and welcome dinner and supports Caldera's Youth and Artists in Residence Programs.
- Fee can be paid by check or Paypal upon acceptance.
